PRODUCER'S PORTAL: TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Paladin Studio Production Inc. | www.paladinstudiobooks.com

Effective date: October 28, 2026. Last updated: October 28, 2026.

Please read these Terms and Conditions (the "Terms") before requesting or receiving any material from the Producer's Portal. By ticking the box on our request form, or by accessing or using any material we send you, you agree to these Terms. If you do not agree, please do not request or use the material.

In short: the materials are confidential, receiving them grants you no rights in any book, pitch or story, and you may not copy, share or develop them without a signed agreement. The full Terms follow.

1. Who We Are

1.1 This website and the Producer's Portal are run by Paladin Studio Production Inc. ("Paladin," "we" or "us"), an independent publishing and development company.

1.2 You are the person or company requesting or receiving material ("you"). If you act for a company, you confirm that you have authority to bind it.

2. What the Materials Are

2.1 "Materials" means any pitch, summary, deck, treatment, look book, agreement draft, image or other document or information that we make available or send to you, whether on this website, by email or by a shared link.

2.2 The Materials are provided for your private evaluation of a possible film or television project. They are a presentation, not a sale.

2.3 Any terms, prices or percentages shown in the Materials are a starting point for discussion. Nothing in the Materials is a binding offer. A deal exists only when a written agreement has been signed by Paladin and by you or your company.

3. No Rights Are Granted

3.1 Viewing this website, requesting Materials or receiving them gives you no license, option, ownership or other right in any book, story, character, title, universe, pitch or other work owned or controlled by Paladin or its authors.

3.2 Paladin and its authors keep all copyright, trademark and other rights. All rights not expressly given in a signed written agreement are reserved.

4. Confidentiality and Restricted Use

4.1 The Materials are confidential. You will use them only to decide whether to discuss a project with Paladin.

4.2 Without our written permission, you will not copy, download (unless we allow it), screenshot, photograph, forward, share, publish, post or otherwise disclose the Materials or their contents, except to your own employees, advisers or financiers who need to see them and who agree to keep them confidential. You are responsible for any breach by those people.

4.3 You will not use the Materials, or any story, character, plot, structure, dialogue, title or other element in them, to develop, write, produce, finance or promote any work, or to help anyone else do so, unless a signed written agreement with Paladin allows it.

4.4 Materials sent to you may carry a watermark showing your name and the date. You will not remove or hide any watermark, notice or label.

4.5 These obligations do not apply to information that was already public, that you already lawfully knew, that you received lawfully from someone else with no duty of confidence, or that you are required by law to disclose (in which case you will tell us first where the law allows).

4.6 Your confidentiality and restricted-use obligations continue for five (5) years after the date of your request, and for as long as the information stays confidential.

5. Access and Verification

5.1 We review each request and may decline it for any reason. We may ask you for information to confirm who you are and the company you represent, such as your credits, website or professional profile.

5.2 We may share Materials by a private, view-only link sent to the email address you gave us. You will not share your link or your access with anyone else.

5.3 We may end your access at any time. If we do, or if you ask, you will stop using the Materials and delete any copies you hold.

6. Ideas and Submissions to Us

6.1 We welcome your interest and inquiries. Please do not send us unsolicited stories, scripts, pitches or ideas through this website or portal.

6.2 If you send us any idea or material anyway, you agree that it is not confidential and not subject to any obligation by us, that you receive no right to payment or credit for it, and that we may already have developed, or may develop, similar material of our own. Nothing in this section applies to terms that we agree in a signed written agreement.

7. Information You Give Us

7.1 When you use our request form we collect the details you give us, such as your name, company, role, email address and message, together with the date and time of your request and your acceptance of these Terms.

7.2 We use this information to review and answer your request, to keep records of who has received Materials and when, and to protect our rights. We do not sell your personal information.

7.3 We keep this information for as long as we need it for those purposes. You may ask us to correct or delete your personal information by emailing us, subject to our need to keep records that show who agreed to these Terms.

7.4 We may share your information with service providers that host our website or deliver files for us, and where the law requires. Our website host may also collect data under its own privacy policy.

8. Independent Producer Inquiries

8.1 If you ask about working with us as an independent development producer, that inquiry is an invitation to discuss, not an offer of employment, engagement or representation.

8.2 Any engagement is set only by a written agreement signed by Paladin and by you. Nothing on this website gives you authority to represent Paladin, to promise any term to a third party, or to bind Paladin.

9. No Warranties

9.1 The Materials, including comparable films and any box-office or market figures, are provided in good faith for discussion, as estimates. They are provided "as is," and we do not promise that they are complete, current or error-free, or that any project will be produced or will succeed.

9.2 You are responsible for doing your own research and getting your own legal and financial advice before making any decision.

10. Limits on Our Liability

10.1 To the fullest extent the law allows, Paladin is not liable for any indirect, incidental, special or consequential loss, or any loss of profit or opportunity, arising from your use of this website or the Materials.

10.2 Nothing in these Terms limits any liability that cannot be limited by law.

11. Remedies

11.1 If you breach Sections 3 or 4, we may suffer harm that money cannot fully repair. You agree that we may ask a court for an order to stop the breach, in addition to any other remedy we have.

12. Intellectual Property of This Website

12.1 The text, images, logos, emblems and design of this website belong to Paladin or its licensors, and are protected by copyright and trademark law. "Paladin" and the Paladin Western Universe emblem are used by us as brands. You may not copy or use them without our permission.

13. Changes to These Terms

13.1 We may update these Terms from time to time. The version in force on the date you accept it applies to Materials we send you after that date. We keep a record of each version. If we make a significant change, we will update the date at the top of this page.

14. General

14.1 These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of Washington, United States, without regard to its conflict-of-laws rules. You agree to the state and federal courts located in the State of Washington for any dispute about these Terms.

14.2 If any part of these Terms is found unenforceable, the rest continues to apply.

14.3 These Terms are the whole agreement between you and Paladin about the Materials until a signed written agreement replaces them, and then the signed agreement controls over any conflict.

14.4 Our failure to enforce a part of these Terms is not a waiver of it.

14.5 You may not transfer your rights or duties under these Terms without our written consent.

15. Contact

15.1 For questions about these Terms, or to request correction or deletion of your information, contact Satom Chhim, Founder, Paladin Studio Production Inc., at satomchhim@paladinstudiobooks.com.

16. Acceptance and Record

16.1 You accept these Terms by reading this document and ticking the acceptance box on our request form, which states: "I have read and agree to the Paladin Studio Production Inc. Terms and Conditions. I understand that the materials are confidential, that receiving them grants me no rights in any book, pitch or story, and that I may not copy, share or develop them without a signed agreement."

16.2 We do not send Materials until you have accepted these Terms. Your acceptance is recorded by our website, including your name, email address, company, and the date and time you ticked the box, and we keep the version of these Terms that applied on that date.

16.3 Ticking the box, together with your typed name and email address on the request form, is your electronic signature and has the same effect as a signature on paper, to the fullest extent the law allows.

16.4 If you do not accept these Terms, do not submit the form, and do not open or use any Materials.

17. Document Control and Notice

17.1 Document: Producer's Portal Terms and Conditions. Version 1.0. Effective date: October 28, 2026.

17.2 This document is confidential to the parties and may not be altered, reproduced in part, or presented as a different document. Only the version published on www.paladinstudiobooks.com, or sent to you by Paladin, is valid.
